

Media Release

Wednesday, September 7, 2005
OUTniagara Officials on the air!

A new weekly interview style show will hit the airwaves at Brock Radio CFBU 103.7 beginning Friday night September 9th at 6pm.

The show called, "Outspoken" will be hosted by OUTniagara chair, Matthew Cutler and OUTniagara Public Relations Director, Ed Eldred with OUTniagara Vice-Chair Brian Scriver.

Cutler says, "The show is designed to cover issues, and events for Niagara's Sexual and Gender Diverse Community."

He added, "The show will include interviews with leaders and members of various organizations across Niagara and a debate segment between the two main hosts on a variety of topics."

Eldred said, "CFBU had been looking for someone to host a show aimed at the GLBTQ community in Niagara and program director, Deborah Cartmer was very happy when we took a proposal to her to air such a show."

The show will also feature a small amount of appropriate music.

The show will air each Friday night from 6 to 7pm and listeners can send their feedback or ideas to outspoken@outniagara.ca.

For more info:	Matthew Cutler	905-688-3992
	Brian Scriver	905-380-4478
	Ed Eldred	905-937-2966

- 30 -

Additional Media Info:

Matthew Cutler, Chair
905.688.3992

Ed Eldred, Director of Public Relations
905-937-2966 or 905-984-8684

82 Queen St. Lower Suite
St. Catharines, Ontario

www.outniagara.ca
general@outniagara.ca